As a member of UNA you will receive our quarterly membership magazine New World and information about UNA meetings and events in your area. There will be many opportunities to become active in UNA's campaigning and educational work, including our annual Parliamentary Lobby, our Urgent Action Network, our media response activities and our Model UN work. As a member you will have a chance to input into UNA's policy making, and attend UNA's Annual Conference. Younger members can join UNA's youth wing, UNYSA, or help to develop our Young Professional's Network. Join today and become part of the UK's leading people movement in support of a strengthened and reformed UN.

If you wish to support our work, but not become an active member, please return to the homepage and choose 'to donate to UNA'
